Updating this Form

It is the responsibility of Councillors to register theirs and their partner's disclosable pecuniary interests and to keep such register up to date.

Where a disclosable pecuniary interest arises during a Councillor's term of office that has not previously been registered, then that Councillor must provide written notification of that disclosable pecuniary interest to the Monitoring Officer.

Where a disclosable pecuniary interest arises as a result of a matter bring considered at any meeting of the Council at which a Councillor is present that has not previously been registered, then that Councillor must provide written notification of that disclosable pecuniary interest to the Monitoring Officer within 28 days of the date of the meeting.

Sensitive Interests

If a Councillor has an interest which, if disclosed on a public register, could lead to them or a person connected to them being subject to violence or intimidation, then they apply to the Monitoring Officer for the interest to be declared a "sensitive interest".

The Monitoring Officer may state on the register that the Councillor has an interest the details of which are excluded.
